

Under no circumstances should you allow changes to Indiana's no-call law. Weakening it in anyway is a tremendous disservice to those of us who have freely chosen not to be bother by telephone solicitations.